DEBATE

ARGUING A SIDE YOU OPPOSE

DIRECTIONS: Debaters must be prepared to argue both sides of an issue equally well, regardless of their personal beliefs on the issue. After reading the following debate propositions, decide how you feel about each topic. Write a persuasive paragraph arguing for the side with which you do not agree.

1. Resolved, That high-school students should attend school eleven months a year.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are approximately 20 lines visible. The paper appears to be a standard notebook page, possibly from a composition book. There is no handwriting or other markings on the page.
